

Consent to recording, processing, and publication of personal data in the form of photos and videos

Responsible for data processing within the meaning of Art. 4 (7) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR):

Helmholtz-Zentrum Berlin für Materialien und Energie GmbH
Hahn-Meitner-Platz 1
14109 Berlin, Germany.

Our Data Protection Officer

Mr. Boris Krause can be reached by phone at +49 30 8062-42408 as well as by email at datenschutz@helmholtz-berlin.de.

Background and purpose of the processing of data

Photos and videos are used by the HZB for purposes of advertising and public relations. This includes printing the images in brochures and flyers as well as their use on the internet including social media activities in which the HZB appears as publisher or has issued a release to third parties. The same applies to video recordings.

Affected categories of personal data

The following personal data and categories of data are compiled and processed:

- Photographic images or video recording
- The time and location of the recording

Your rights

Detailed information can be found on our website at:

https://www.helmholtz-berlin.de/datenschutzerklaerung_en.html

In addition, under Art. 77 of the GDPR you have the right to file a complaint with the data protection supervisory authority concerning the communication of personal data if you believe that the processing violates the GDPR.

Revocation instructions

The consent given for the use of photos and videos can be revoked in writing at any time. The legitimacy of the data processing/data transmission carried out on the basis of the consent up to the point of its revocation is not affected.

I herewith declare my agreement that my personal data (in this case, photographs and / or video recordings that portray myself as well as the location) can be recorded, processed, and published.

I have taken note of the applicable instructions for revoking consent.
